Farry to Welcome Senate Majority Policy Committee for a Hearing on the Sterling Act and its Impact on Suburban Communities

BUCKS COUNTY – Sen. Frank Farry (R-6) will welcome Senate Majority Policy Committee chair Sen. Dan Laughlin (R-49) to the 6th Senatorial District for a public hearing about the Sterling Act and its impact on suburban communities on Thursday, March 2, starting at 10 a.m., in the Middletown Township Municipal Building, located at 3 Municipal Way, Langhorne, PA 19047.

The hearing will highlight the present-day impact of the Sterling Act on Philadelphia’s surrounding communities, with specific attention paid to the economic impact on individuals and municipalities and how the disparity of this tax practice has resulted in the loss of significant tax revenue to support local resident’s needs.

Testimony will be provided by a statewide local government organization, local residents, local municipal officials and tax professionals.

The hearing will be livestreamed here.
